SCHEDULE OF CONDITIONS.

An approximate quantity of 12,000 tons of firewood per month will be required for supply to Bangalore City, Civil and Military Station and the Army for a period of twelve months beginning from the 15th April 1947. The fuel may be of any of the following kinds :—

(i) Casurina fuel.
(ii) Dindiga fuel.
(iii) Kamara fuel.
(iv) Jungle fuel. (Hard or soft).

Persons who have already taken up forest coupe contracts up to the end of 30th June 1947, for supply of fuel or charcoal to Bangalore City, under conditions already notified by the Forest Department, may continue to do so till 30th June 1947.

2. Persons who are willing to undertake fuel supplies to Bangalore City from areas other than those referred to above will be classified into two categories.

(a) "Major contractors" are those who undertake to supply 1,000 tons or more per month. Appendix (A), indicates the special conditions applicable to them in addition to the General conditions noted below.

(b) "Minor contractors" will be of two kinds.

(i) "Shop contractors" who supply less than 1,000 tons a month, to certain specified shops in Bangalore City, or

(ii) "Existing fuel licensees" in Bangalore City who are prepared to make arrangements for their own supplies. Such persons should also tender under this Notification. Appendix (B) applies to these Minor contractors in addition to the following general conditions.

3. The following, however, are the general conditions applicable to all contractors whether Major or Minor.

(a) The rates quoted must be per ton of each variety of fuel delivered at the retail distributing centres, in Bangalore, under orders of the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, in the City, Civil and Military Station or Army Depots and must include all costs of transport, seigniorage, taxes, cutting, billeting, etc., and must be in conformity with the following specifications.

(b) The fuel supplied shall be dry and sound, neither worm-eaten, nor green, nor in any way unsuitable for immediate use. Heavily barked wood and wood containing big knots will not be accepted. Billets exceeding 3' in length or less than 2" in diameter or exceeding 3' in girth will be rejected. The decision of the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies in the matter will be final.

(c) Rejected fuel should be removed by contractors at their own expense.

(d) All fuel received by road in lorries shall pass over the Weighbridge which is now situated at the Office of the Inspector-General of Police. The contractor shall accept the officially recorded road or rail weighment.

(e) In the case of cart-loads of fuel, the weight of the fuel received shall be accepted generally by mutual agreement between the supplier and the shop-keeper as it will not be practicable to weigh each cart-load. If however a dispute should arise as regards the actual weight, it will be test-checked in the presence of the nearest Fuel Inspector or Assistant Rationing Officer of the Circle and in the case of a party challenging the correctness of the weight, the party challenging will have to bear in the first instance the additional expense, if any, due to extra transport, loading and unloading. In the event of the challenge being proved to be justified, by an error exceeding 1 per cent of the gross weight, the supplier will bear all the additional expense of weighment. If he does not pay this immediately, it will be recovered from the contractor's security and paid to the successful challenger.

(f) The Security deposit of contractors will be liable to forfeiture in full or in part, for failure to conform to any of the conditions of this contract or to any of the subsidiary instructions issued at the discretion of the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, from time to time. In cases of any difference of opinion between the Contractors and the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, the contractors are bound to accept the decision of the Additional Director of Food Supplies as final.

(g) The contractors shall not be paid for any firewood rejected.

(h) All contractors shall maintain such accounts in such form and furnish necessary information at such times as the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, may, from time to time, direct. All books, accounts and correspondence maintained by the contractors shall on demand at all times be open for inspection by the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, or his authorised representative.

(i) No contractor will be allowed to sublet the contract to anyone else without the permission of the Additional Director of Food Supplies.

(j) The Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, and his Assistants shall always have power to inspect the accounts and check all consignments of fuel, from the source to the shops, at any stage.

(k) The transport of fuel by rail or road shall be regulated by issue of permits.

(l) Each contractor is bound to take sufficient precautions to prevent the diversion of fuel from the area concerned to Bangalore City in any other direction.

(m) If at any time during the currency of the contract, the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, or any of his subordinates find that the contractors have failed to maintain the prescribed reserves, the Special Officer, Fuel Supplies, may arrange to procure the required quantity to make up the prescribed reserves at the risk and expense of the contractors.
